BARTON MYERS ASSOCIATES

Barton Myers Associates is architecture and planning firm located in Los Angeles since the early 1980's has grown to a firm of twenty professionals, including four professionally registered architects, currently working on an assortment of major commissions for public, private and institutional clients. Barton Myers has earned an international reputation for excellence in architectural design with projects ranging from houses to large urban developments. At every scale, many of Barton Myers' projects have been pioneering efforts - his own industrial, off-the-shelf components house; the development of high-density urban infill; the sensitive restyling of existing buildings; and, the design of high quality cultural institutions throughout Canada and the United States. From its inception, Barton Myers Associates' commitment to design excellence has been recognized in awards for planning, architecture and interior design.
