

DR. P. PHILLIPS ORLANDO PERFORMING ARTS CENTER PROJECT TEAM

BAKER BARRIOS ARCHITECTS

Baker Barrios Architects is a local firm provides a scope of services for clients that includes architecture, master planning, pre-design services and interior design. The firm has designed many local projects including The Plaza, the new OUC (LEED) corporate office building, UCF Recreation Services Center and 55 West. www.bakerbarrios.com

Carlos Barrios, AIA - Principal-In-Charge. Carlos is responsible for managing the technical production and management commissions. He has more than 25 years of experience as an architect, project manager and project executive. As the principal-in-charge, project executive or project manager of many major projects, Carlos has made significant contributions to the local landscape during his tenure with Baker Barrios Architects, Inc. His areas of expertise include the design of high-technology facilities, mixed-use developments, government facilities, hospitality complexes, educational facilities and convention centers. His extensive background in working with both public sector and private clients has aided the outstanding growth of the firm.